Several conferences on the Isthmian Canal Bill have been arranged for this week, with chances for a vote on the measure Friday in the House. Carlsson's real name is Rice.

The Senate yesterday by a vote of 42 to 31 adopted the Spooner amendment to the Hepburn Nicaragua Canal Bill. After amendments had been adopted providing for a commission and for the issuance of $130,000,000 of gold bonds, the Hepburn Bill for the construction of the Panama canal was passed by a vote of 67 to 6. In the vote on the Spooner amendment, the only Democrat who voted with the Republicans was Senator Jones of Arkansas.

The Italian Ambassador, Signor Mayor Des Planches, yesterday complained to Dr. Hill, Assistant Secretary of State, of the publication of the findings of the Admiral Crowninshield's comment on the findings of the Court of Inquiry, in the case of the Chicago's officers arrested and imprisoned in Venice. The United States Government had sought to minimize the incident. It is not thought that Capt. Dayton, of the Chicago, will ask for a court of inquiry on account of Admiral Crowninshield's criticisms, but changes of commands in the European squadron may result.

LEADS THEM ALI. "One Minute Cough Cure beats all other medicines I ever tried for coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles," says D. Scott Curran of Logan, Pa. One Minute Cough Cure is the only absolutely safe cough remedy which acts immediately. Mothers everywhere testify to the good it has done their little ones. Croup is so sudden in its attacks that the doctors often arrive too late. It yields at once to One Minute Cough Cure. Pleasant to take. Children like it. Safe cure for grip, bronchitis, coughs. A. M. Hughes.

According to a report filed by Maj. J. H. Mansur in the office of the Adjutant General, the Gatling guns entrusted to Battery B. of Lexington, are in bad condition and some of the officers have been negligent. It is probable that the battery will be mustered out of service and reorganized at some other point in the State. It is also probable that the reorganization movement will extend to Battery A. of Louisville.

Fearing that the United States Cuban Congress will furnish no relief to Cuba, President Palma, with the approval of his cabinet, will send a message to the Cuban Congress advocating the distribution of $3,500,000 among sugar growers and cattle raisers. President Palma says there are thousands of men idle and that some steps must be taken to save the sugar and stimulate the cattle industry.

Three tons of silver coin was shipped from New York to Porto Rico. The shipment was in payment of certain bonds, although the primary reason for the shipment of silver instead of currency was to prevent the depletion of paper money in the island through its being sent out of the country in letters.

A REAL FRIEND

"I suffered from indigestion for fifteen years," says W. T. Stuvant of Merry Oaks, N. C. "After I had tried many doctors and medicines to no avail one of my friends persuaded me to try Kodol. It gave immediate relief. I can eat almost anything I want now and now my digestion is good. I cheerfully recommend Kodol." Don't try to cure stomach trouble by dieting. You need wholesome, strengthening food. Kodol enables you to assimilate what you eat by digesting it without the stomach's aid. A. M. Hughes.

JUNE 23.

Information just published by the Bureau of Commerce shows American trade with Great Britain to be on the increase. The cause is said to be found in the economy and novelty of American wares.

The Chinese cruiser Kai-Chi is reported to have been destroyed by an explosion while lying in the Yang Tse Kiang river. The vessel sank in thirty seconds and only two out of the 120 officers and men escaped death.

In the Fayette Circuit Court at Lexington yesterday Cam Shepard, one of the boys charged with burning Bradley Cottage, at the State Reform School, was sentenced to seven years in the penitentiary.

gins in Lexington to-morrow night. Capt. Richmond Pearson Hobbs, ex-Gov. "Bob" Taylor and Samuel Gompers will be among the lecturers.

The deadlock in Congress over the Army Appropriation Bill has caused a request to be made of the President to send in a special message on the subject. Immediate action is necessary to provide quarters for five regiments now on the way home from the Philippines. In case provisions is not made, the troops will be compelled to camp next winter in tents.

The adjournment of Congress is now placed at not later than July 4. In addition to brief consideration of several special bills, all of which are expected to go over to the next session, the Senate will this week give its time to conference reports on appropriation measures. The attention of the House will be occupied largely by the Philippine Government Bill.

The health of King Edward was authoritatively reported yesterday to be good. All rumors to the contrary are said to be baseless. Coronation week opens with London's streets already congested. At a dinner given by Earl Roberts to Court von Waldersee, the latter complimented the British army on their brave, "humane and devoted work in the South African War."

President Mitchell, of the United Mine Workers of America, yesterday gave out for publication an address to the people of the country, in which he presents the miners' side of the strike in the anthracite region. He claims that there are 17,500 men employed who average only 200 working days in a year and make less than $300 a year. He insists that the operators can pay better wages and asserts that the coal carrying roads, which control about 85 per cent. of the mines, absorb the profits of their coal companies by exorbitant freight charges. He also states that more men are killed and wounded annually in the mines than in the Spanish War. He appeals for an arbitration of the differences.

HOT WEATHER WEAKNESS. You feel fagged out, listless and lacking in energy, you are perhaps suffering from the debilitating effects of summer weather. These symptoms indicate that a tonic is needed that will create a healthy appetite, make digestion perfect, regulate the bowels and impart natural activity to the liver. This herbine will do it. It is a tonic, laxative and restorative. H. J. Freeland, Propr. Grand View Hotel, Cheney Kan., writes: "I have used Herbine for the last 12 years, and nothing on earth can beat it. It was recommended to me by Dr. Newton, Newton, Kan." 50c at A. M. Hughes.

JUNE 24TH.

President Roosevelt yesterday sent to the House a list of those claiming American citizenship who are held by the British as prisoners of war in Africa. The British government refuses to release them on parole except in the case of men seriously or dangerously wounded.

In the Kanawha field the outlook is for a decided break in the strike. The mines at Winfrede have voted to return to work. Food and money are being sent to the West Virginia striking miners by headquarters in Indianapolis, but the miners say they would not be surprised if they were enjoined from sending food.

In the Senate yesterday Mr. Quay made a formal motion for the discharge of the committee on Territories from the consideration of the measure to admit as states the Territories of Oklahoma, New Mexico and Arizona. No action was taken on the motion. Mr. Quay said the promise in the Republican platform of 1896 to admit these Territories had been broken. He quoted the promise to the effect in the platform of 1900 and said the Republican Congress must carry out this promise or stand self convicted of treachery. Mr. Beveridge, chairman of the Committee on Territories, said the question had gone over to the next session.

The railroads of Indiana, it is said, have been confiscating all the coal coming over their lines and are keeping it loaded in cars on sidings. As a consequence there is a shortage of cars, and it is claimed that there is already a practical tie-up at the mines. This action of the railroads is due to an apprehension that there will be a general suspension of mining. It is contended that the railroads are thereby playing into the hands of the miners in the event of a general tie-up.

The debate on the Philippine Civil Government Bill in the House yesterday was marked by an interesting controversy joined in by Representatives Grosvenor, Bartlett, Richardson, Mahon and others. It grew out of Mr. Grosvenor's statement that charges of cruelty against American officers in the Philippines and their counterparts on both sides during the Civil War.

William J. Bryan gave out a statement in Lincoln yesterday in reference to the recent speech of former President Cleveland at the Tilden Club dinner in New York. He says there is no such thing as harmony where Mr. Cleveland is concerned. He arraigns the former President severely, and in closing says: "The fight is on between a Democracy that means Democracy and a Clevelandism which means plutocracy."

King Edward and Queen Alexandra yesterday arrived in London and were escorted to Buckingham Palace with a semi-State procession. Their arrival signals the opening of coronation festivities that will continue until Saturday night. Already the streets of the metropolis are overcrowded, and both surface and underground traffic is badly congested. The King and Queen last night entertained at dinner seventy royal personages who practically represented the monarchs of the world.

The National Cigar Leaf Tobacco Association has called the attention of Attorney General Knox to certain alleged coercive business methods of the American Tobacco Company and the American Cigar Company controlled by it. It is claimed that the American Tobacco Company, in certain instances, has refused to fill orders for chewing tobacco and cigarettes unless large amounts of cigars are bought from the American Cigar Company. An investigation has been ordered by the Attorney General.

SAVED FROM AN AWFUL FATE. "Everybody said I have consumption," writes Mrs. A. M. Shields, of Chambersburg, Pa. "I was so low after six months of severe sickness, caused by hay fever and asthma, that I thought that I could get well, but I learned of the marvelous merit of Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, used it, and was cured." For desperate throat and lung disease it is the best cure in the world, and is infallible for coughs, colds and bronchial affections. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00 trial bottle free at A. M. Hughes' drug store.

DWALE

The heavy rains and hail storms have done great damage to the crops in this locality, and washed the hill lands into the valley.

Old Uncle James Johnson, of Prater creek, who is very low with fever, is a little better. He is one of our best citizens.

The railroad men have moved from Prestonsburg and pitched their tents at the Mouth of Prater. They are getting along very smoothly with our people in securing the rights of way and it seems that July 1st is the time set for work to begin.

Judge A. J. Anxier took sick at Hindman Court. W. W. Baker was elected as special judge. Mr. Anxier, in trying to get back to his home at Pikeville, got as far back as Bill Buck Stumbo's on Beaver, and is very sick there.

The Standard Company got out of Prater creek and Beaver several tie rafts and started them down the river.

WARFIELD

My last week's letter read in a way it was not meant. The second page of my letter was either lost in your office or omitted and read as if the people had parasites. Now the second page explained that people or hoodlums living away from our pleasant little town tanked upon blind tiger whiskey across the Tug river in West Virginia, and sponged upon the good people here and terrorized the community in general and I then gave you an account of the killing of George Newsum in the upper end of our town.

The N. & W. people are securing rights of way on the West Virginia side of our river and many coal options are being taken.

The Seaboard Air line surveying party also entered our town yesterday evening. They cross from Pike over into West Virginia, on to Pigeon Creek, and thence down on the Kentucky side of Tug river. The party consists of 20 to 25 men and are camped just above our town, so that Louisa fork's loss will be Tug fork's gain.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Dempsey, of Inez, Ky., are on a protracted visit to relatives and friends here and have their bright children with them.

Mrs. Dorsey, mother of Mrs. J. D. Barret, is seriously sick at her daughter's home with a complication of diseases. All hope for her ultimate recovery.

Albert Kirk, our obliging postmaster, is just commencing a new residence adjoining his store and the postoffice.

Methodist Quarterly Conference meets here next Sunday. J. D.

MOUTH OF BEAVER.

Misses Loula Davidson and Gracie Allen visited Miss Mary May Sunday.

J. P. Lavin, one of our popular merchants, was up on Prater Sunday.

Hatcher Bros. were offered fifteen thousand dollars for their valuable possessions (at No. of Beaver) but did not accept. It seems that all kinds of land have gone skyward and it is hard to ask too much.

Walker Porter, Will Goble and Doc Woods are starting up a new line of push boats.

Theop Salmon's firm accepted a job with Hatcher's logging Co. at Prater.

J. P. M. Davidson returned from Prater and says the right of way is secured from Beaver to Prater, but did not say by which company.

Hon. W. T. Martin and surveyor Will Akers have been reviewing a road up the right hand side of Beaver, and the people expect a good report as it crosses about 25 miles of travel over any crossings.

A. J. Davidson, the accommodating Cashier of the Bank Josephine, passed through here last week on his way up Beaver on business and to look at some very fine coal banks he owns in the Beaver valley.

There seems no longer any doubt that the C. & O. is pressing through.

The Standard Lumber company got off several rafts and have their ties and timber in good shape for next rise.

George Lavin, our prominent cattle merchant, is buying up beef for railroad men.

A. L. Woods and Goble Johnson are building a large tobacco barn and say they expect to start a home market.

Dr. E. K. May has changed from East to West Dale, and will soon commence building a fine residence. Doc is keeping step with the railroad.

W. P. Salmons is furnishing the railroad camps with home grown vegetables of all kinds. L. N.

The Dedication of the new Christian Church house at Sand Hill has been postponed, because of inclement weather, until some future time which will be chosen by the committee.

Rev. J. H. Stambaugh, who was to preach the Dedication sermon, has just closed a meeting of nine days with the above named Church which resulted in forty additions. The community was very much impressed, strengthened and encouraged by his series of sermons which were plain, eloquent, and instructive. Bro. Stambaugh is a man, as all who know him can testify, that "is determined" to be the servant of God and to know nothing among the people save Jesus Christ and Him crucified.

The dedication of the Baptist Church is set for the fourth Sunday in July as the day for performing said services, and a large congregation is expected if the weather is suitable.

BUSSEYVILLE.

The angel of death visited the home of Osborn Carter, on Thurs. day of last week, and took Elizabeth, aged 70 years, his wife and companion. She had been afflicted quite a long time with heart disease, and until within a few days of her death, bright hopes of recovery were entertained. She bore her sufferings without murmur or complaint, leaving bright testimony that she was going to rest in "that beautiful city in the great beyond." She leaves considerable family and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss, but they mourn not as those who have no hope. Funeral sermon by Rev. Miller, from Revelations XXII and 5th. She was buried in the graveyard on the hill overlooking the home where she had lived and toiled for many years.

Miss Lucy Shannon, of Louisville, was here this week visiting friends and relatives. On Monday of this week Misses Pearl and Fairy Holt gave a dinner in honor of her, which was an event of the season. Several of their young friends were present and enjoyed the tastefully arranged dainties, which included almost everything eatable of the whole season. Miss Lucy is always a welcome guest in our midst.

Miss Lora P. Simer, in company with some of her friends, was visiting friends on Reuben Tuesday last.

Mrs. F. R. Bussey and Miss Sue Holt attended children's day exercises given at the M. E. Church in Louisville last Sunday night. They report an excellent rendition of all the parts taken, and a splendid time in general.

Mr. E. E. Shannon, the genial business manager of the Louisville Furniture company, accompanied by Miss Belle Cummings was visiting the Busseyville Sunday school last Sunday. We were pleased to see them and hope they will come again.

Prof. Jay McComis, late of the Berea College, who lately engaged his services to the International Sunday school committee, has been accepted, and is now in service. He delivered quite an interesting talk at Forks of Blaine Sunday.

"What has become of Ned Collins?" someone. Well sir, he is at home farming on an extensive scale, is highly industrious and has around him all the things of this life which will make a man happy and contented. He runs a Sunday school at Chinch Church on Lick Creek and is found regularly at his post doing his duty as he sees it.

Rev. David Thompson, Atty at Law, and newly ordained Minister, preached his maiden sermon at Forks of Blaine two weeks ago to quite a large congregation. He showed by his effort that he was master of the enterprise and was by no means excited in the least. He delighted his hearers to that extent that all are anxious for his next appointment.

The net amount of the state distributable school fund received by Wayne county this year will be $10,764.71 and the Independent district of Ceredo will receive $1,127.25 more making a total of $11,891.96.

The Mingo Poultry and Machine Works has been chartered, with chief works at Williamson, Mingo county, with an authorized capital stock of $10,000, of which $2,500 has been subscribed and paid in. Incorporators, S. A. Wellman, J. F. Wellman, D. P. Starks and B. B. Campbell, all of Williamson.

Albert D. Marks, who recently committed suicide in Nashville, is shown to have played a remarkable double role. He was a Catholic and was regarded as a zealot, yet he swindled Bishop Byrne and Father Morris, his closest friend and confessor of the diocese. More than $80,000 of forged tunc, pipe stock has been found, and other crooked deals have been unearthed.

The Republican senatorial caucus yesterday again failed to reach a definite conclusion in regard to the Cuban reciprocity question and adjourned subject to the call of Chairman Allison. While it is possible that another conference may be held next week, the lack of action yesterday indicates that there will be no Cuban legislation at this session of Congress. The result is regarded as a humiliating defeat for the President.

Agents for the N. & W. have been engaged for several days taking options on the right of way for the Big Sandy branch of road, between Kenova and Cassville. Agreements on the amount of damage have been made with a number of the landowners. While no damage is being paid, the taking of these options seems to indicate that the line may be built on this side of the river to Kenova. So far as we have heard, the company has agreed readily with the farmers on the amount of damages.—Wayne News.

Accused of a murder committed at Twelve Pole, Logan county, W. Va., near the Tug river, 15 years ago, the Cincinnati police will soon arrest a colored woman, who was released from the Workhouse recently. She was recognized on the streets by one of the eye-witnesses to the killing, who buried the remains of Ida Smith, 19, colored, who was slain during a quarrel over a chicken.

A posse followed the murderers, accompanied by her lover, through the mountains.

The fugitives have since resided in Cincinnati under assumed names.—Cincinnati Post.

POETRY.

Again the Angel of Death came to the home of Brother T. W. Tackett, and took his little daughter, Nancy, to go and live with Christ, who said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven." Little Nancy Tackett was born March 3d, 1900, and died June 19th, 1902, of fever. It has been less than two months since Bro. Tackett followed his wife to the grave, who, only a short time before she died, asked for the little golden-haired Nancy, the darling of the home, the pride, the joy, the comfort of the father, obeyed her mother's call and has gone to be with her. What a happy reunion there will be when we all meet in heaven, where sorrow never comes, but where we will live with Christ and loved ones gone before.

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. C. L. Diamond. D.

On Wednesday June 18 there occurred at Paintsville one of the swiftest weddings that ever took place within the limits of the town. Rev. M. E. Stafford, pastor of the M. E. Church South, and Miss Carolyn Stafford daughter of F. M. Stafford, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. It appeared from the storm which raged in the afternoon that the grand preparations must have been made to no avail, and the plans for this superb occasion must go down in defeat; but though the dismal rain continued until nearly five o'clock, it was not so disastrous as was generally anticipated. Providence spared the day, when the clouds rolled away the dust had been allayed and a pleasant coolness prevailed to add to the evening proceedings. At 8:30 a great throng was pressing its way to the M. E. Church, South, where the scene of interest should occur. The building was decorated in splendor with the choicest flowers and ornamental designs which could be obtained. To pave the way for the approaching spectacle, a beautiful solo was delivered by Mrs. George Hager. The hour had now arrived and Miss Bertha Patrick at the organ began Mendelssohn's Wedding March. The ushers from the rear then advanced with slow and stately step, followed upon the left aisle by two little children with flowers and then the three bridesmaids in single file. The corresponding male attendants likewise proceeded upon the right aisle. In the rear were the bride with her brother and the groom with his best man. The procession arranged in a semi-circle upon the forum with Rev. Bonnybacker, D. D., to perform the ceremony. W. T. Stafford, the bride's escort, now reached the front and gave her away to the bridegroom upon the forum. As they moved to meet the minister, their way bestrewn with flowers, the dying strains of music became silenced. The matrimonial and ring ceremonies were then performed with formal dignity and gracefulness. The bride couple then turned and passed slowly beneath the Stafford arch and down the aisle, followed by the bridesmaids, attendants and ushers, who in pairs moved in majestic harmony to the triumphant finale of wedding march.

The graceful bridesmaids were Misses Edna Stafford, Leona Stafford and Margaret Hatten who were dressed in fine apparel of white, pink and blue respectively. The gallant attendants were Rev. Rader and Messrs. Heber Rice and Don Stafford, who with their fair partners graced the occasion with credit.

The snow white costume of the bride was of beautiful design, and the groom wore a black suit with white tie and gloves. The ushers were J. Verne Rice and Mr. Ramey and Miss Edna Stafford was maid of honor.

Masters Russell Hager, Clifford Stafford, and the little Misses Rosalie Kirk, and Georgie Brown performed the children's part quite beautifully.

After the wedding, the procession and guests passed over the creek to the home of the bride, where supper was served and merry social greetings and music ensued until midnight. Recitations, both humorous and of historic sublimity were delivered by Rev. Rader, Miss Margaret Kelly and Miss Edna Stafford. Among the guests were Miss Stafford of Frankfort, Miss Margaret Kelly, Emma Auxler and Gertrude Kelly, of East Point; Mrs. Kate Rice, Mrs. Belle Brown, Mrs. George Hager and others from Paintsville.

At 12 o'clock when the merriment was over the silver moon lent its cheerful midnight illumination to the dispersing guests and told them in silent majesty a happy goodnight.

They proceeded to nominate a candidate for Congress. M. F. Swetnam placed the name of J. N. Kehoe before the convention, and without a dissenting voice Kehoe was nominated and the chairman declared the convention adjourned.

THE door creaked very slightly, but it jarred on Jasper Dane's nerves. He looked up from his brown.

"Is this Mr. Dane?"

A young woman was framed in the doorway. Jasper's frown slightly faded as he caught sight of her. She was a pretty young woman, and charmingly groomed, and she wasn't more than one and twenty. Jasper avoided the woman's page of his paper. He couldn't have told what the young woman in the doorway was, but he recognized the fact that it was a combination that seemed to be just suited to her.

"Mr. Dane, the editor?"

Jasper, pencil in hand, bowed again. The young woman advanced into the apartment.

"You are much younger than I supposed you to be," she said. Jasper's eyes opened wider.

"I am not quite sure that I ought to take that as a compliment," he said. He even smiled. Then the pressing character of his work reminded him. He frowned, and hastily scribbling the writer's address on it, would have tossed it aside with the remark that he would communicate with the writer by mail concerning it—and then he would have resumed his work. Now he hesitated.

"What is the nature of the article?" he asked in what he fancied was an indifferent tone.

"It isn't an article," said the girl. "Do I look like a person who would write an article?"

She seemed to challenge his scrutiny. Jasper couldn't resist the temptation. He leaned a little farther back.

"It isn't always possible to judge by the appearance," he said.

"But I fancied article writers were always old and—fussy, and—cranky," said the girl.

"There are exceptions," said Jasper. "There must be exceptions."

"I suppose you know," said the girl. "But it isn't an article."

"You arouse my worst fears," said Jasper as the girl spread out the manuscript.

"I think I understand what you mean," she said.

"I'm glad you do," said Jasper. "And I'm afraid your worst fears are confirmed," he said.

"Then it is verities?" he said. "I supposed it was poetry," said the girl.

"They always do," said Jasper. "The girl looked up at him with a pretty grimace."

"You are not a bit encouraging," she said.

"It's the better way," said Jasper. "And yet you write verses yourself," said the girl. "And get them printed, too."

"Perhaps it is because I haven't a friend honest enough to dissuade me," said Jasper. "I have had no time for that sort of nonsense lately, however."

"That's a pity," said the girl. "Don't think to soften me in that way," said Jasper.

"I like those lines beginning 'She came upon me unawares,'" said the girl. "I know them by heart. 'She came upon me unawares, I turned and she was there.'"

"I beg your pardon," cried Jasper. "It is your lines that are under consideration. Pray produce them."

The girl gave him a sidelong glance. "Did she come upon me unawares?" Mr. Dane?

Jasper caught the glance and slightly flushed. His look grew troubled again. "I live in hopes," he said.

"That's emphatic," laughed the girl. "It shows you are not sure."

"I must object to your manifest intention to throw me into a sentimental mood," said Jasper. "It will not help you."

The girl laughed and passed the manuscript to him.

"I know you will like it," she said. "Why are you so certain?" Jasper asked.

"Because I haven't written on both sides of the paper," said the girl. Jasper bent over the manuscript to hide his smile. Then his look changed. The smile faded. He read the lines are. Presently he looked

"Intend to buy a new bug-an-sol," the Louisa Furniture Inter-line, Ma of At che Whitehead, has been in poor condition for some time. Each was to put up $50 in cash to find the deal. Dwyer counted out $50 and Salyer a roll out of his pocket containing $90. Dwyer snatched all the money and escaped under the side of the tent. Three men known as "go between" stepped in front of Salyer and prevented him from pursuing the robber. They turned him out at the regular entrance. By this time Dwyer had made good his escape down the railroad. Dwyer boarded the train that night at mouth of Blaine, seven miles below here.

A man connected with the side show was arrested as an accomplice, but could not be held.

Salyer followed the show to Huntington, riding through the country that night. He had Dwyer arrested and recovered the money, at a cost of about $25.

Squire Hutchison, of Wayne county, W. Va., was faked out of $25 at Ashland and recovered his money by getting out an attachment for the show at this place.

Several people suffered from the "short change" game.

The show carried a ray from here a little over $380 from the large crowd present. The performance was very poor. 50c admission was charged here, and 25c at Ashland.

An employee who was too decent to remain with them, quit at Huntington. He said he was afraid they would lay some crime on him because he was not in with the gang; or would "red light" him—which means to hurt him from the train at night while running at full speed.

The man told us that Dwyer was the "fixer" for the show. That is, it was his duty to see all the officers and policemen of a town and "fix" all who could be influenced with money or otherwise so that the "graffers" and "boosters" under his control would be safe in their work. The show is to get 25 per cent of all these men can steal.

As stated last week four men from this show were arrested at Ashland and taken back to Vanceburg for kidnapping a 15-year-old country girl and badly abusing her. Only one was held, and the others were released.

Railroad Doings.

200 Italian laborers went up Big Sandy Wednesday to work on the construction of the extension of the C. & O. from Whitehouse to Virginia. It is said that negroes and Italians will be used to do most of the labor on the new road. The work is now in full blast and business will boom up Sandy from this forward.

The N. & W. has a corps of engineers at work locating the line down the West Virginia side of the river. Rights-of-way matters are assuming a satisfactory shape. A deal has been made with James Prichard for running the line through his property. The work of construction is expected to begin within a few weeks.

Death of a Little Child.

The spirit of little Morton Freese, only child of Dr. and Mrs. M. G. Watson, and only grandchild of Capt. and Mrs. F. F. Freese, peacefully took its flight Wednesday night at ten o'clock, after an illness of two weeks of cerebro-spinal meningitis. His recovery had been despaired of several days before the end came, but as the life sparks lingered and flickered, hope revived time and again, only to be as often broken.

Throughout the long and trying vigil, this entire community has kept watch with the stricken family, anxiously hoping that the little one would be spared to his fond parents and dotting relatives.

He was an unusually bright little boy, twenty-three months of age, the idol of his parents and grandparents, and his death is a great blow to the family.

He will be buried this (Friday) morning, at ten o'clock, with services at the residence of his grandfather, F. F. Freese, conducted by Rev. Boland.

Mrs. Watson has not yet recovered from her severe illness; and Dr. Watson's father and sister are both critically ill. Dr. Watson is therefore in a most trying place, and the greatest sympathy is felt for him by everyone.

A GANG OF ROBBERS.

The Bucksin Hill Wild West aggregation, which showed here last week, was the worst lot that ever struck this section. Thieves and robbers flitted the public on every hand. All sorts of gambling games and fake schemes were run wide open, and it is surprising that almost the whole outfit was not placed under arrest.

W. R. Salyer, a huckster from near Flat Gap, was decoyed into a side-show tent after the main show was over, under pretense of letting him into an electric belt scheme.

Wm. Dwyer, who pretended to be a special policeman employed by the show, was the man who victimized Salyer. The men went into a booth or "cool" made for this purpose.

Each was to put up $50 in cash to find the deal. Dwyer counted out $50 and Salyer a roll out of his pocket containing $90. Dwyer snatched all the money and escaped under the side of the tent. Three men known as "go between" stepped in front of Salyer and prevented him from pursuing the robber. They turned him out at the regular entrance. Ninth District Convention in Session Here.

The fifth annual meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of the 9th Congressional district of Kentucky, commenced in Louisa Tuesday evening at 7:30.

The delegates present from a distance are: Grayson: Mrs. Frank Powers, district president; Mrs. D. L. Osenton, Mrs. T. J. Ault, Mrs. Blase, Mrs. Holcomb, Mrs. Reid, Mrs. R. B. Neal, Miss Bettie Jones, Miss Lillie Nethercutt, Miss Grace Miller.

Greenup: Mrs. Judge Reid and Miss Madge Sands.

Louisville, Mrs. Bender, Vice President of the State organization.

The meeting was held in the M. E. Church, South, and was called to order by the President.

The session opened with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. J. M. Boland.

Mrs. Frank Powers followed with a very appropriate opening address in which she displayed not only her earnestness in the temperance cause, but her particular fitness for the position of president of the district organization.

Warm welcome addresses were made by Rev. G. W. Howes, Judge R. T. Burns and Mrs. Josephine Rice. These were responded to very gracefully by Mrs. Daisy Osenton and Mrs. Bender.

Miss Grace Miller was attentively listened to throughout the delivery of an interesting original article about Frances E. Willard, the great temperance woman.

The program was interspersed with music.

The morning and afternoon sessions have been devoted to reports and routine business.

Wednesday evening Mrs. G. W. Howes conducted the devotional exercises.

Mrs. D. L. Osenton read an interesting paper, "The Twentieth Century Woman," which was followed by a solo by Mrs. Fannie Wade.

The Juvenile Society then gave the Alphabet recitation and a song. A well rendered recitation by Miss Sadie Reynolds was very much enjoyed.

Mrs. Naomi Blase sang a temperance song of her own composition, which was much appreciated by the audience.

Mrs. Bender's address was the closing number for the evening. It was a highly interesting and impressive talk. She is one of the ablest and most earnest W. C. T. U. members in the State. She is fluent in speech and knows her subject thoroughly.

The program for Thursday evening is as follows:

7:30 Devotional, Mrs. May Reid, Song, Choir.

Select Reading, Miss Emma Wallace.

Solo, Mrs. H. C. Sullivan.

Address, Mrs. Bender.

Big Sandy Girl Wins.

We are very much pleased to learn that Jean, the bright young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. McClure, natives of Louisa, has been awarded the gold medal in elocution at Loretta Academy in Santa Fe, New Mexico, for the term just closed. Our readers will doubtless remember that she won the silver medal last year by her excellence in this branch. We are not surprised, but none the less gratified. She has very superior talent which became apparent at an early age. And then, you know, if there are any medals hanging around in the outside world within reach of a Big Sandyan, there is never any question about who will get them. With Jean holding up Big Sandy's end of the New Mexico rope, it is only a matter of time before she will be the first to pull it.

Her father, Mr. R. C. McClure, is a well known and successful merchant in Louisa, and her mother, Mrs. R. C. McClure, is a well known and successful teacher in the same place.

Her education was obtained at the Louisa Common School, and she is now attending the Loretta Academy in Santa Fe, New Mexico.

THEY CRUSH THE POWERS

This is written in mid-October. The long, oppressive summer is quite gone. Fading leaves wither and the rustling corn in the fields are signs of the season. Fog, frost, rain, snow—they are coming. You remember last winter, of 1900 and 1901. The weather was cruel. All the thousands and thousands of people who died, and the thousands of thousands who were maimed and crippled. Oh, the rough grip it laid on men at work, women at home, and children in cribs and cradles. Coughs that began before Thanksgiving Day are racking and tearing them still; yes, and growing worse as they dig deeper into the poor, tired throat and lungs. Many were cured by using Benson's Porous Plaster. For the soothing and healing power of these Plasters is wonderful. They conquer the complaints.

THAT ARE KILLING THE PEOPLE.

No other plaster, no other medicine or application, can compare with them. Coughs, colds, hiccups, rheumatism, lameness, kidney and liver troubles, asthma, influenza—they all go down before Benson's Plaster like a snowflake in the sun. You can't throw money away on a Benson's Plaster. Everybody is going to use them this season. But make certain you get the genuine. All druggists, or we will prepare postage on any number ordered in the United States on receipt of 25c. each. Seebury & Johnson, Mfg. Chemists, N.Y.

Oakes filled his pulpit Sunday morning, preaching to a large congregation, and Sunday night, at the request of some of the brethren, he preached at the M. E. Church. Church prejudice is vanishing from our town and brotherly love taking its place.

Big Sale of Mineral. Teachers' Institute. Plasons Celebrate.

Death of Wm. Sword.

J. M. Staton and Jas. Goff recently made a sale of something near 30 thousand acres of mineral. They had taken options from the people some time since at a much higher price per acre than others who had taken options; so that so far as this sale includes the people will receive a far better price than others who have sold to other companies.

There were 35 applicants in the Teachers' examination Friday and Saturday. There is quite a contest over many of the schools in this county.

Mr. Bowles, a young minister from Barbourville College, has come here to preach for the M. E. Church, South, for the remainder of the year. He seems to be very intelligent and deeply in earnest. The anticipated business boom seems to be causing many people to neglect the one great business of this life—that of preparing for the next.

VIRULENT CANCER CURED.

Startling proof of a wonderful advance in medicine is given by druggist G. W. Roberts of Elizabeth, W. Va. An old man there had long suffered with good doctors. They pronounced incurable cancers. They believed his case hopeless till he used Electric Bitters and applied Bucklin's Arniea salve, which treatment completely cured him.

When Electric Bitters are used to expel bilious, kidney and microbe poisons at the same time this salve exerts its matchless healing power blood diseases, skin eruptions, ulcers and sores vanish. Bitters, 50c. Salve 25c at A. M. Hughes' drug store.

INTERESTING TO ASTHMA SUFFERERS.

Daniel Bante of Ottumwa, Iowa, writes: "I have had asthma for three or four years and have tried about all the cough and asthma cures in the market and have received treatment from physicians in New York and other cities, but got very little benefit until I tried Foley's Honey and Tar which gave me immediate relief and I will never be without it in my home. I sincerely recommend it to all." A. M. Hughes.

TAX ON BABIES.

Extreme hot weather is a great tax upon the digestive power of babies, when puny and feeble they should be given a few doses of Whites Cream Vermifuge, the children's tonic. It will stimulate and facilitate the digestion of their food, so that they soon become strong, healthy and active. Price 25c at A. M. Hughes.

"Aye be plantin' a tree, Sandy, ma man; it'll be growin' when you're sleepin'." So advised Sir Walter Scott. It was good advice that—advice which can well be kept in mind and made applicable to every part of the home grounds and all the plants grown there.

And get out of the plant all the good possible. Have just the right kind for the particular place. And prepare that place in the best possible manner. Any kind of planting is better than no kind; but enduring satisfaction belongs only to putting the right sort in place.

CONSTIPATED BOWELS.

To have good health, the body should be kept in a laxative condition, and the bowels moved at least once a day, so that all the poisonous waste are expelled daily. G. L. Edwards, 142 N. Main St., Wichita, Kansas, writes: "I have used Herline to regulate the liver and bowels for the last ten years, and found it a reliable remedy." 50 cts. at A. M. Hughes.

SPRING FEVER.

Spring fever is another name for biliousness. It is more serious than most people think. A torpid liver and inactive bowels mean a poisoned system. If neglected, serious illness may follow such symptoms. Dewitt's Little Early Risers remove all danger by stimulating the liver, opening the bowels and cleansing the system of impurities. Safe pills. Never gripe. I have taken Dewitt's Little Early Risers for torpid liver every spring for years. writes R. M. Everly, Moundsville, W. Va. "They do me more good than anything I have tried." A. Hughes.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Jennetta Curdutt, the wife of J. W. Curdutt, was born January 31, 1874, died June 16, 1902, aged 27 years 4 months and 16 days. She joined the church 13 years ago and was converted to God, and has lived a christian ever since, and died in the triumphs of a living faith.

She was the daughter of Thomas and P. H. Carter. Weep not, kind friends. She told her father, a year ago, she would soon come too.

Her last admonition to her companion and children was not to weep for her, but to prepare to meet her on the other shore. Bro. Curdutt has lost a loving companion, the children a loving mother and the church a faithful member. She has now gone to Jesus her master in heaven.

She was laid to rest on the old home grave yard, the burial services being conducted by Rev. W. M. Copley.
